

Problem/Solution Assignment

Directions: Identify a problem that you have a solution for. It can be a problem you are facing, one that students at Waldo are experiencing or one you have observed outside of school. Identify who your intended audience is- it should be someone who has the ability to do something about the problem. Explain the problem, the causes of the problem and one or more possible solutions. Then, Conclude your writing by providing the reader with a way to respond. Make sure your conclusion is appropriate to the audience you are targeting.

You may use the sentence frames provided BUT make sure that the writing flows together and makes sense.
